

EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR - 2012
TODD MURPHREE
Senior Corporal – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Todd is a graduate of Mesquite Poteet High School in Mesquite, Texas and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice from UT Arlington with a minor in Spanish. He was an intern with the Tarrant County Probation Office, and holds a Master Peace Officer License and a Texas Certified Nurseryman's License.

Employment Background & Experience:

Todd worked at Calloway's Nursery as a Store Supervisor from 1994 until 1998. He joined the Euless Police Department on January 14, 1999, promoted to Senior Police Officer in May, 2003, and then to Senior Police Corporal in January, 2008.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal:

Todd is a member of the Law Enforcement Bicycle Association, Texas Narcotic Officers Association, Texas Association of Hostage Negotiators, Tarrant County Major Investigative team, team supervisor of the newly formed NETCAST hostage negotiator team, and the Euless Peace Officer's Association. He has received the following recognition: 2001 Police Rookie of the Year, 2005 Police Officer of the Year, 2009 Supervisor of the Year, and the November 2009 Employee of the Month. He loves spending time with his family (i.e., coaching sports, supporting ballet, and participating in church activities). He comes from a family of public servants (his father is a retired firefighter; his brother is a police officer).

