

THIRTY YEARS OF SERVICE
DAVID CORT – SEPTEMBER 1986
Sergeant – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

David graduated from Trinity High School, attended Temple Junior College on a basketball scholarship, and received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education (minor in Business and History) from the University of Texas at Arlington. He holds the following certifications, licenses, and training: State of Texas Real Estate Broker's License, Master Police Officer, DWI Recognition, Standardized Field Sobriety Testing Practitioner, Crisis Intervention Training Certified Instructor, PPCT Instructor, and Koga Method Instructor.

Employment Background & Experience:

He has worked for United Teacher Associates in insurance sales. He also was a Karate instructor for the City of Hurst. Immediately before joining the Euless Police Department, he was a framer for F. M. Builder (home builder). David worked for Cortland Investments in the field of Investment Real Estate for three years and was a Residential Sales Agent for four years with ERA Ferguson & Moreland. He also has experience in warehouse, wholesale, retail, courier, sales, and business ownership. David promoted to the position of Sergeant in January, 1998.

Awards, Recognition, & Associations:

He received a Certificate of Merit in 1998. David has 35+ years of experience in the Martial Arts and holds Black Belt rank in three styles: Hapkido, Tae Kwon Do, and Aikido. He developed, coordinates, and still teaches the Defensive Tactics for the Police Department (28 years); he is also training and developing five new DT Instructors. Outside of work, David is an avid golfer, enjoys working out, hiking, biking, basketball with his sons, and is active in coaching youth elite basketball.

