What arrangements can be made for your foster animal(s) if you travel?

_____

Do you have a separate room that your foster can stay in if needed for a few days of the fostering process so that he/she can become acclimated to your home? Yes _____ No _____

Are you able to provide food and cat litter on an ongoing basis during the fostering period?

Yes _____ No _____

Which types of cats are you interested in fostering? Please check all that apply:

Pregnant _____ Bottle fed kittens _____ Mom w/kittens _____ Kittens under 8 weeks _____ Sick _____

Injured _____ Occasionally adults if shelter full _____ (specify male or female if necessary)

Please check mark if you would need training for bottle feeding. _____

Please list and explain all other relevant experiences you've had caring for cats (training, grooming, weaning, etc. _____

_____

Generally cats going into foster will not be fully vetted due to sick, injured, pregnant, or too young. Depending on situation it maybe wise to keep fosters separated from household pets. Please feel free to discuss with shelter staff for specific cat/kitten in need.
