

EULESS TODAY

Did you know?
262 ADA ramps have been installed throughout the City of Euless since December 2012.

Dear Citizens,
We have been watching the construction of the Hurst Euless Bedford Independent School District Auxiliary Services Facilities on Hwy. 10 and now it's ready for the Grand Opening. Please welcome them to Euless on February 1 and take a tour of the facility.

The Dolly Parton Imagination Library is a great program that provides free books to children under the age of five. Books are mailed once a month to each child in the household. What a great way to get kids excited about reading!

Read about our great activities planned during February: a big band concert at the Library, multiple events to celebrate Valentine's Day and a chance to play golf at a great resident rate. And don't forget about that new indoor pool. There are many opportunities for swim lessons, aerobics classes or just swimming and keeping healthy.

Together we continue to Build a Better Tomorrow for our citizens.

Children's Free Book Program Expands in Eules

Started by recording artist Dolly Parton, Imagination Library is a free national program that encourages a love of reading in children and their families. The program mails books monthly to homes of children from birth to age 5. United Way established the local program in 2008 and offers it in ZIP codes where there is the greatest need. More than 670 children are currently enrolled, and thousands of local youngsters have participated through the years.

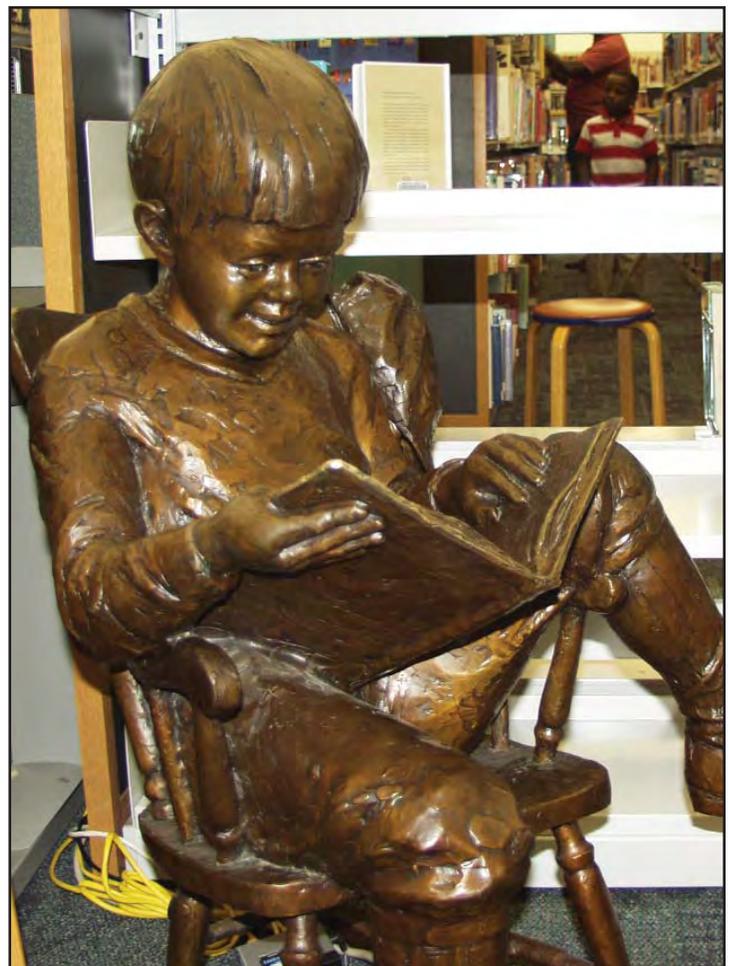

This fall the program is expanding to benefit both Eules zip codes: 76039 and 76040. To sign up your child, please call United Way at 817-258-8115.

Numerous studies have shown that having books in the home during the preschool years helps youngsters prepare to succeed in school. "I say the earlier you start them off, the better," said Pedro Soto of Eules. Pedro recently signed up his 2-year-old daughter Cassandra to receive Imagination Library books. Two years ago he enrolled older daughters Crystal, who is now in first grade; and Giselle, a kindergartener. "It really got them into reading," said Pedro. "Every month it would be, 'When is the next one coming?' It helped them with reading and writing at school."

Reading the Imagination Library books has been a family affair. "We'd read together at first," said Pedro. "I'd read to them and show them basics about reading. Here lately they start reading on their own and read out loud to me, with me explaining things to them when they get in trouble."

Community Partners for the Imagination Library program include: United Way of Tarrant County, Workforce Solutions for Tarrant County, Arlington ISD, Birdville ISD, Fort Worth ISD, Northeast Leadership Forum, Partners Together for Health (the foundation for JPS Health Network) and Tarrant County Child Care Management Services (CCMS) operated by Child Care Associates.
