

FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE
BRIAN LORD – January 2007
Senior Police Officer – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

Brian graduated from Greater Atlanta Christian School in Atlanta, Georgia. He earned a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas. He holds the following certifications: Basic Peace Officer and Field Training Officer. He attends job-related training.

Employment Background & Experience:

After completing his freshman year at Abilene Christian University, he enlisted in the Marine Corps Reserves. He spent 10 months in Fallujah, Iraq. After returning home, he completed his degree. Brian moved to the Euless area where he joined the Euless Police Department. On January 4, 2012, he successfully completed the promotional testing for Senior Police Officer.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal Data:

He earned the 2010 Michael Williamson Rookie of the Year Award. He has received several letters of commendation. Brian enjoys working out, playing on an indoor soccer league with his friends, and following the Atlanta Falcons football team.

