

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF SERVICE

TODD BELLAH – JANUARY 1991

Sergeant – Police Department

Education, Training & Licenses:

After graduating from Haltom High School, Todd began pursuing a college degree in Criminal Justice at Tarleton State University and Tarrant County College. He holds a Master Peace Officer license and also holds the following certifications: Basic-Advanced SWAT, Basic-Advanced Police Sniper, SWAT Instructor, TCOLE Instructor, Firearms Instructor, Sniper Instructor, and Department Armorer.

Employment Background & Experience:

Todd was employed in mill and lathe work at George Conover Tool & Manufacturing. He also worked as a machinist for Allen Duncan Company for two years. When the business closed, he became employed at Bose Machine Company. He joined the City of Euless in 1991 as a Public Service Officer; promoted to Police Officer in March 1992; to Corporal in April 1996; to Senior Police Corporal in January 2008; and to Sergeant in January 2015. Todd has been assigned to Patrol, CID and the Auto Theft Task Force.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal Data:

He has been with the Euless Tactical Team and now with the Joint SWAT Team (NETCAST) for 19 years and is currently Assistant Commander on SWAT. Todd is proud of his recognition as Officer of the Year, Life-Saving Award, and recipient of Certificates of Merit, as well as Supervisor of the Year. When he's not working, Todd enjoys spending time with his family.

