

FIFTEEN YEARS OF SERVICE
MIKE COLLINS – JANUARY 2001
Director of Planning and Economic Development

Education, Training & Licenses:

Mike is a graduate of Midland High School in Midland, Texas, received a B.A. in Political Science from Austin College in Sherman, Texas and received a Master's Degree in Urban Affairs from the University of Texas at Arlington.

Employment Background & Experience:

His previous employment includes working in Government Relations for four years with the Dallas Area Rapid Transit and holding the positions of Assistant to the City Manager and City Manager for the City of Wylie from 1994-2000. He joined the City of Euless as Director of Planning and Development in January 2001 and was appointed Director of Economic Development in August 2009. Currently, he serves as the Director of Planning and Economic Development.

Awards, Recognition, Associations, & Personal Data:

While being very active in the community, Mike has been a Trojan Talk Mentor at Trinity High School since 2002, a member of the Board of Directors for the HEB Education Foundation since 2015, and an active volunteer for 6Stones/Community Powered Revitalization. He has been on the Board of Directors of the Bobby Bragan Youth Foundation since 2010 and is currently on the Executive Committee as Scholarship Chair. He is also a past member of the ARTSNET Board of Directors, having served as President. Mike was the recipient of the Northeast Chamber Hometown Hero Award in 2009. Mike enjoys spending time with his family, fitness, cooking, sports, reading, and travel.

